

What is an administrator?

An administrator is a person who looks after your money.

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) decides if you need an administrator.

What does an administrator do?

An administrator can

- Plan where your money goes
- Decide how to spend your money
- Give you some money to live on
- Pay your bills

Make sure you tell your administrator how you want to spend your money.

Your administrator must think about your wishes when they make decisions.
